
NOURISHING THE HUNGER FOR CONTEMPORARY SPIRITUALITY

The Institute for the Study of Contemporary Spirituality at Oblate School of Theology is the only concentrated, integrative program of its kind in the United States offering ATS-accredited PhD, DMin, and MA degrees in Contemporary Spirituality.

PROGRAMS

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY IN CONTEMPORARY SPIRITUALITY

A full-time residential program designed to give each student the tools to assess religious experience, critically evaluate contemporary movements within spirituality, help mentor others in spirituality, and do scholarly research and publishing.

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY IN SPIRITUALITY AND MINISTRY

A flexible program available as either residential or intensive intercession. Program focused on enhancing the understanding and practice of ministry through exploration of traditional and contemporary movements in Christian spirituality.

MASTER OF ARTS IN SPIRITUALITY

An academic program designed to help students from a variety of Christian traditions deepen their understanding of Christian spirituality. Program available either full-time or part time, in residence or on-line.
